

Teri French is an Administrative Assistant/Office Manager for The Hub of Human Innovation. The organization guides innovative companies to successfully launch into the market. She provides administrative support to the Executive Director, Assistant Director and others as necessary.

Prior to joining The Hub, Teri's career had been in the Real Estate, Medical and Private Investigations fields, providing administrative and accounting support to various companies in El Paso. Ms. French co-owned and operated a successful Chiropractic Clinic for several years.